A good apartment with characteristic high ceilings is located near the Slavija square. Space overlooks the square and the fountain. The building is nice, marble, with an elevator. The height of the ceiling is over three meters. The space has one large, central room which leads to all rooms in the apartment and two of which are rooms joined by the door. The apartment has a bathroom and a toilet. The kitchen is separate, spacious and unfurnished and can be used as an additional office. The apartment is in good condition, the parquet is preserved, the bathrooms are relatively new. One terrace is turned towards the yard and one small to the street. Suitable for office space or some business activity.
