Excellent apartment with characteristic high ceilings, located in very city center, close to Student's park. Housed on the second floor of a beautiful prewar building, it has a view over the greenery of a park and Dorcol exterior. The apartment is completely renovated, including installations, while it is attractively decorated and furnished. Partially redecorated initial structure of the apartment includes spacious entrance hall with dining area, which leads further towards the living room with an exit to a small terrace. From dining room one can enter the bedroom. Within the bedroom there is an open wardrobe, and modern, sophisticated bathroom with shower cabin. Bedroom has a terrace of it's own. Modern kitchen has natural ventilation, as well as nicely decorated ceramics. Additional small room is furnished with a bed for one person and a desk, so it is suitable for guest room or working area. One more glassed in terrace and toilet are at disposal. This high quality interior in pastel and bright colors is enriched with interesting details. Suitable for clients with high esthetic taste and standards.
