Excellent, completely renovated space with separate entrance. It is situated in a beautiful location near Kneza Miloša Street, several embassies and institutions. The position not far from the highway, allows quick and easy communication with various parts of the city. The space is oriented towards the street, the yard and the inner terrace. The entrance leads to the central room, and further to two connected rooms facing the street. The hallway leads to one large room, bathroom, toilet and kitchen. The toilets are new, modern in design, while the bathroom has a shower. The kitchen is equipped, spacious, with dining area, with access to the inner terrace surrounded by a building. The interior is interesting with the original arched ceilings, lined with brick, and lighting. Parts of the walls are also decorated with bricks. There are tiles on the floor with a wood pattern. All windows and doors are new. The space has a very specific and pleasant. Suitable for business, but also for a comfortable life.
