Nice apartment, situated in Dorcol, close to Kalemegdan Park. Located in an attractive location suitable for all who want to be in the focus of city events. It is housed on the first floor of a pre war building with high ceilings. The apartment consists of a large living room with dining area, terrace overlooking the yard, separate kitchen, and six large rooms some of which are interconnected. Upper level consists of large open space and a bathroom which could be used for residential purposes. Thanks to the functional structure, the space can be used both for comfortable life or business activities.
