Good apartment in a house on Dorčol, near the Aleksandar Nevski Church, next to the Museum of Science and Technology. A quiet part of the street, in the immediate vicinity of the market, a busy boulevard, while the pedestrian zone is at 10 minutes walking distance. The apartment is housed on the ground floor of a separate house. The house has a common yard and consists of three apartments, one on each level. A two-room apartment with a separate entrance, and next to it is a corridor with a staircase that connects the other two levels. The bathroom has a shower, while the space is fully equipped with new, modern furniture. The air conditioner is an inverter, so the costs are also very decent, per consumption.
