An excellent apartment in Vracar, near the Red Cross square, in a quiet and peaceful location. The building is located in a one-way street with little traffic, which is well connected to many parts of the city. The apartment is housed on the third floor of a new building with an elevator, it is two side oriented. It consists of an entrance hallway, which leads to a comfortable living room with dining area, a spacious kitchen and a terrace overlooking the street. The second part of the apartment is the sleeping block, which consists of four bedrooms, one of which is master bedroom with its own bathroom with a bathtub. From the master bedroom, there is access a skylight, which can be used as a storage room for bicycles, scooters, etc. There are built-in closets in the hallway, and there is another bathroom, as well as a guest toilet and a small storage room at disposal. One parking space in the garage part of the building is provided for tenants. The space is unfurnished, suitable for quiet office work, also suitable for a family.
