A nice apartment in a small pre-war building without an elevator, close to the Kalenic green-market. A quiet street from which all commercial content, as well as a public transport station, is at two minutes walking distance. A landscaped yard and a classic entrance with a circular staircase lead to this renovated part of the attic on the second floor. Spacious and bright apartment, consists of a large living room interconnected with a dining room and kitchen. The kitchen is partially separated by a bar. This part has an access to a beautiful terrace. Opposite the terrace is a hallway that leads to two bedrooms, a bathroom and a toilet. The bathroom has both a shower and a bathtub. The heating per consumption. Equipped with a combination of new modern and classic furniture. Suitable for a couple or a small family.
